Six local wrestlers received No. 1 seeds Wednesday as the seedings for the Section II wrestling state qualifier tournaments were announced.

The state qualifier meets for Division I (large schools) and Division II (small schools) will be run side-by-side on Saturday at the Cool Insuring Arena in Glens Falls, beginning at 9:30 a.m. The semifinals are expected to run by 1 p.m., and the finals are set for about 7:15 p.m.

Winners and at-large qualifiers advance to the New York State Wrestling Championships, set for Feb. 22-23 at the Times Union Center in Albany. The format will again will be double elimination, except for first-round losers who are done for the day.

Repeating as No. 1 seeds are seniors Ryan Sleezer of Queensbury at 113 pounds and Brant Robinson of Saratoga Springs at 195, both in Division I, and in Division II, Warrensburg senior Nolan McNeill at 195.

Other local top seeds are Warrensburg sophomore Hunter McKenna (145) and undefeated Hadley-Luzerne/Lake George senior Cody York (182) in D-II, and Saratoga junior Eric Griskowitz (138) in D-I. Shenendehowa sophomore Brock Delsignore, a former Section II champ at South Glens Falls, is the top seed at 145 in D-I.

Sleezer, McNeill and H-L/LG senior Logan Duers are the only returning local Section II champions.

Receiving No. 2 seeds in D-II were Duers (152), Hudson Falls' Chris Petteys (106), Warrensburg's Dylan Winchell (113) and Corinth's Alec Richards (138). Local No. 2 seeds in D-I are South High's Vincent Santilli (126) and Saratoga's Doug Cooper (220).
