Reading: The Legend of the Blue Bonnet

In Reading, we will be focusing on finding the lesson of a legend/folktale. We will be reading The Legend of the Blue Bonnet. Then we will review The Legend of the Indian Paintbrush, and compare and contrast these 2 legends by Tomie DePaola.

Math:

Properties of Multiplication & Division

This week, we will be wrapping up our unit on Multiplication and Division with factors of 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10. We will review solving unknowns in multiplication and division problems, using patterns to solve facts with 0 and 1, using multiplication tables, solving one- and two-step word problems, as well as solving facts with multiples of ten.

Science: Land & Water

This week, we will begin about different types of soil and their properties. In addition, we will be learning about different landforms and how they created from the process of erosion.
